Conference for Food Protection

Conference for Food Protection Requirements for Certification Organizations to Provide Food Protection Manager Certifications using the ISO 17024 Personnel Certification Standard

Preamble/History

The Conference for Food Protection ("CFP"), is an independent voluntary organization that promotes food safety and consumer protection and includes in its responsibilities the establishment and maintenance of the Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs ("CFP STANDARD").

Starting in 2012 CFP began consideration of the ISO/IEC 17024, Conformity assessment – General requirements for bodies operating certification of persons ("ISO 17024 STANDARD") as an alternative accreditation standard for certification bodies accredited or seeking accreditation under the existing CFP food Protection manager standards.

As an outcome of the 2016 Biennial Meeting of the Conference for Food Protection, the following charge was given to the Food Protection Manager Certification Committee ("FPMCC"):

Determining the process and requirements for potential acceptance of the International Organization for Standardization/ International Electrotechnical Commission (ISO/IEC) 17024-2012 for food protection manager certification as an additional option to and without impact on the existing CFP Standards for Accreditation of Food Protection Manager Certification Programs, with the input of standards development expertise from American National Standards Institute (ANSI).

This document is the result of the deliberation and recommendations from the FPMCC and represents the process and requirements for CFP to recognize a certification body that is accredited by ANSI under the ISO 17024 STANDARD.
The requirements described in this document shall be applied in conjunction with the ISO 17024 standard. All clauses of ISO 17024 standard continue to apply. This document provides supporting criteria to that standard for certification bodies that want to be recognized by the CFP.
