

Conference for Food Protection RESEARCH PROJECT SUPPORT STAFF JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

The Conference for Food Protection (CFP) is collaborating with the National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO) on a two-year research project designed to further the capacity of state, local, tribal and territorial (SLTT) food regulatory agencies to improve retail food safety and reduce foodborne illness across the United States. A copy of the Project Research Proposal has been placed on the CFP website at the link noted below.

Applications will be accepted for the position of Research Project Support Staff member; until October 15, 2020. To view the Position Description and Application Form, please click on the link noted below.

Information about this project is available at the following link:

<http://www.foodprotect.org/cfp-naccho-research-project/>

This is a half-time position funded by a grant from the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) that CFP is collaborating on with the National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO)..

The salary for the Research Project Support Staff Member is up to $37,500 per year depending on experience. Funding for the first year of the project is guaranteed. Funding for the position in year two is dependent on receiving funding from FDA for the second year of the project. The Research Project Support Staff member will render services associated with the position as an independent contractor. The individual hired for the position will be responsible for the payment of any self-employment, income, and/or other taxes arising from performance of these services.

Questions regarding the position may be directed to Dr. David McSwane, Executive Director of the CFP via email at dmcswane.cfp@gmail.com or by calling 317-696-0573.

Applicants are asked to complete the application form for the Project Support Staff position. Electronic submissions are required and are to be submitted to David McSwane at the email address appearing above. The deadline to apply is October 15, 2020.

A Selection Committee has been established by the Conference Executive Board. Oral interviews will be conducted with the top candidates for the position. The application review and interview process are expected to be completed by late October 2020.